

PROGRAM SUMMARY

The Program Committee is planning a very exciting program that incorporates both basic science and clinical science. The program will be presented in standard podium presentations but also with quickshot presentations (3-minute talks). At the beginning of the three day meeting, we will host a dedicated multi-specialty oriented symposium entitled:

“MINIMALLY INVASIVE SURGERY IN THE VA – IS IT INDICATED”

Please contact us at 425-354-3230 or send an email to vasurgeons@gmail.com if you are interested in participating as an exhibitor.

2012 ANNUAL MEETING

APRIL 1-3, 2012

EDEN ROC RENAISSANCE MIAMI BEACH

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Association of VA Surgeons (AVAS) Annual Meeting is being held at the fabulous Eden Roc Renaissance Miami Beach, FL on April 1–3, 2011.

Eden Roc Renaissance Miami

The AVAS is dedicated to providing the highest standards of surgical practice and delivery of the best possible care for our nation's veterans. Our educational goal is to share information and knowledge of new modalities and treatment of various surgical diseases. This meeting is intended for general, oncologic, vascular, thoracic, wound care and critical care surgeons from VA Hospitals throughout the United States. University-based surgeons and surgery residents with affiliation with the VA also attend this meeting.

The scientific sessions will begin on Sunday, April 1, 2012 at 8:00 am and will end on Tuesday, April 3, 2012. There is a dedicated space for our exhibitors near the scientific meeting room and breakfast and breaks are usually served in the room.
